TV box

The Green TV Box ensures a top connection from your Internet to your television set. In addition, you don't need a separate video recorder, because with the Green TV Box you can easily record your favourite programmes. In contrast to many other reception boxes, the green.ch TV Box is silent for your digital TV and thus ensures maximum TV enjoyment without annoying background noises. A user-friendly remote control is included.

The TV Box can be installed quickly and easily without any previous technical knowledge.
